

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF BETALINK USA
LLC

These Terms and Conditions of Service constitute a legally binding contract between the “Company” and the “Customer”. In the event the Company renders services and issues a document containing terms and conditions governing such services, the terms and conditions set forth in such other document(s) shall govern those services.

1. Definitions.

- (a) “Claim” or “Claims” shall mean any and all liabilities, losses, costs, claims, demands, fines, penalties, delays, suits, judgments, interest, awards including arbitral awards, causes of action including at law or in equity, expenses, liens, other encumbrances, and damages of any kind or description, including court costs, attorney’s fees and expenses, and sums paid by way of settlement and compromise, of whatever nature, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, including the contractual obligation to indemnify another, of every type and character, and regardless of when incurred or by whom asserted including the parties or any third parties.
- (b) “Company” shall mean Betalink USA LLC, its subsidiaries, related companies, agents and/or representatives;
- (c) “Customer” shall mean the person for which the Company is rendering service, as well as its principals, agents and/or representatives, including, but not limited to, shippers, importers, exporters, carriers, secured parties, warehousemen, buyers and/or sellers, shipper’s agents, insurers and underwriters, break-bulk agents, consignees, assignees of Transport Documents, Storage Documents, or other commercial documents, and other similar parties, etc. It is the responsibility of the Customer to provide notice and copy(s) of these Terms and Conditions of Service to all such agents or representatives;

- (d) “Documentation” shall mean all information received directly or indirectly from Customer, whether in paper or electronic form;
- (e) “Fault” shall mean the sole, joint, or concurrent negligence, in whole or in part, or other fault; unseaworthiness of any vessel; and breach of duty, whether statutory, contractual, at common law, in equity, or otherwise;
- (f) “Storage Document” shall mean a warehouse receipt, storage agreement, or other document evidencing the receipt of goods for storage, distribution or other handling;
- (g) “Transport Document” shall mean a bill of lading, waybill, forwarder’s cargo receipt, contract of carriage, or other document issued by the Company evidencing the receipt of goods for carriage;
- (h) “Ocean Transportation Intermediaries” (“OTI”) shall include an “ocean freight forwarder” and a “non-vessel operating carrier”;
- (i) “Third parties” shall include, but not be limited to, the following: “carriers, truckmen, cartmen, lightermen, forwarders, OTI’s, customs brokers, agents, warehousemen and others to which the goods are entrusted for transportation, cartage, handling and/or delivery and/or storage or otherwise”.

2. Company as Agent. The Company acts as the “agent” of the Customer for the purpose of performing duties in connection with the entry and release of goods, post entry services, the securing of export licenses, the filing of export and security documentation on behalf of the Customer and other dealings with government agencies, or for arranging for transportation services or other logistics services in any capacity other than as a carrier.

3. Limitation of Actions.

- (a) Unless subject to a specific statute or international convention, all claims against the Company for a potential or actual loss must be presented as follows: (i) a preliminary written notice of claim within

5 business days, and (ii) a formal claim must be made in writing and received by the Company, within 60 calendar days of the event giving rise to claim; the failure to give the Company timely notice shall be a complete defense to any suit or action commenced by Customer.

(b) All suits against Company must be filed and properly served on Company as follows:

- (i) For claims arising out of ocean transportation, within one (1) year from the date of the loss;
- (ii) For claims arising out of air transportation, within two (2) years from the date of the loss;
- (iii) For claims arising out of the preparation and/or submission of an import entry(s), within 30 days from the date of liquidation of the entry(s);
- (iv) For any and all other claims of any other type, with two (2) years from the date of the loss or damage.

4. No Liability for the Selection or Services of Third Parties and/or Routes.

Unless services are performed by persons or firms engaged pursuant to express written instructions from the Customer, Company shall use reasonable care in Company's selection of third parties, or in selecting the means, route and procedure to be followed in the handling, transportation, clearance and delivery of the shipment; advice by the Company that a particular person or firm has been selected to render services with respect to the goods, shall not be construed to mean that the Company warrants or represents that such person or firm will render such services nor does Company assume responsibility or liability for an action(s) and/or inaction(s) of such third parties and/or its agents, and shall not be liable for any delay or loss of any kind, which occurs while a shipment is in the custody or control of a third party or the agent of a third party; all claims in connection with the Act of a third party shall be brought solely against such party and/or such party's agents; in connection with any such claim, the Company shall reasonably cooperate with the Customer, which shall be liable for any charges or costs incurred by the Company.

5. Quotations Not Binding. Quotations as to fees, rates of duty, freight charges, insurance premiums or other charges given by the Company to the Customer are for informational purposes only and are subject to change without notice; no quotation shall be binding upon the Company unless the Company in writing agrees to undertake the handling or transportation of the shipment at a specific rate or amount set forth in the quotation and payment arrangements are agreed to between the Company and the Customer.

6. Reliance on Information Furnished.

- (a) Customer acknowledges that Customer is required to review all documents and declarations prepared and/or filed with U.S. Customs & Border Protection, any other government agency and/or third parties, and will immediately advise the Company in writing of any errors, discrepancies, incorrect statements, or omissions on any declaration or other submission filed on Customer's behalf;

In preparing and submitting customs entries, expert declarations, applications, security filings, documentation and/or other required data, the Company relies on the correctness of all documentation, whether in written or electronic format, and all information furnished by Customer; Customer represents, warrants, and covenants the accuracy, sufficiency, and the correctness of all such information and documents and shall indemnify, defend, and hold the Company harmless from any and all Claims arising out of or resulting from the Customer's failure to disclose information or any incorrect, incomplete or false statement by the Customer or its agent, representative or contractor upon which the Company reasonably relied, regardless of the Fault of Company, Customer, or any third party. The Customer agrees that the Customer has an affirmative non-delegable duty to disclose any and all information required to import, export or enter the goods. The Customer further agrees that the Company has no duty to inquire into the accuracy, sufficiency, or completeness of any documents or information and under no circumstances shall be held accountable or charged with information or documents that Customer fails to provide in writing.

7. Declaring Higher Value to Third Parties. Third parties to whom the goods are entrusted may limit liability for loss or damage; the Company will request excess valuation coverage only upon specific written instructions from the Customer, which must agree to pay any charges therefore; in the absence of written instructions or the refusal of the third party to agree to a higher declared value, at Company's discretion, the goods may be tendered to the third party, subject to the terms of the third party's limitations of liability and/or terms and conditions of service.

8. Insurance. Unless requested to do so in writing and confirmed to Customer in writing, Company is under no obligation to procure insurance on Customer's behalf; in all cases, Customer shall pay all premiums and costs in connection with procuring requested insurance.

9. Disclaimers; Limitation of Liability.

- (a) Except as specifically set forth herein, Company makes no express or implied warranties in connection with its services;
- (b) Subject to (c) below, Customer agrees that in connection with any and all services performed by the Company, the Company shall only be liable for its negligent acts, which are the direct and proximate cause of any injury to Customer, including loss, delay or damage to Customer's goods, and the Company shall in no event be liable for the acts of third parties;
- (c) In connection with all services performed by the Company, Customer may obtain additional liability coverage, up to the actual or declared value of the shipment or transaction, by requesting such coverage and agreeing to make payment therefor, which request must be confirmed in writing by the Company prior to rendering services for the covered transaction(s).
- (d) In the absence of additional coverage under (b) above, the Company's liability shall be limited to the following:
 - (i) where the claim arises from activities other than those relating to customs business, $50.00 per shipment or transaction, or

(ii) where the claim arises from activities relating to “Customs business,”

$50.00 per entry or the amount of brokerage fees paid to Company for the entry, whichever is less;

(e) In no event shall Company be liable or responsible for consequential, indirect, incidental, statutory or punitive damages, even if Company has been put on notice of the possibility of such damages, or for the acts of third parties.

(f) As applicable, and unless otherwise stated in these Terms and Conditions, Company’s liability will be limited in accordance with the limitations imposed under the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act (COGSA), the Montreal Convention, and/or any other applicable statute or regulation.

10. Advancing Money. All charges must be paid by Customer in advance unless the Company agrees in writing to extend credit to Customer; the granting of credit to a Customer in connection with a particular transaction shall not be considered a waiver of this provision by the Company.

11. Indemnification/Hold Harmless. The Customer agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold the Company harmless from any Claims arising out of or resulting from the importation or exportation of Customer’s merchandise and/or any conduct of the Customer, including, but not limited to, the inaccuracy of entry, export or security data supplied by Customer or Customer’s agent or representative, which violates any Federal, State and/or other laws, regardless of the Fault of Company, Customer, or any third party. In the event that any Claim is brought against the Company, Company shall give notice in writing to the Customer by mail at Customer’s address on file with the Company.

12. C.O.D or Cash Collect Shipments. Company shall use reasonable care regarding written instructions relating to “Cash/Collect on Deliver (C.O.D.)” shipments, bank drafts, cashier’s and/or certified checks, letter(s) of credit and other similar payment documents and/or instructions regarding collection of monies but shall not have liability if the bank or consignee refuses to pay for the shipment.

13. Costs of Collection. In any dispute involving monies owed to Company, the Company shall be entitled to all costs of collection, including reasonable attorney's fees and interest at 18% per annum or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less unless a lower amount is agreed to by the Company.

14. General Lien and Right to Sell Customer's Property.

- (a) Company shall have a general and continuing lien on any and all property of Customer coming into Company's actual or constructive possession or control for monies owed to Company with regard to the shipment on which the lien is claimed, a prior shipment(s) and/or both, including for all claims for charges, expenses or advances incurred by the Company in connection with any shipment(s) of the Customer.
- (b) Company shall provide written notice to Customer of Company's intent to exercise such lien, the exact amount of monies due and owing, as well as any on-going storage or other charges; Customer shall notify all parties having an interest in Customer's shipment(s) of Company's rights and/or the exercise of such lien.
- (c) Unless, within thirty days of receiving notice of lien, Customer posts cash or letter of credit at sight, or, if the amount due is in dispute, an acceptable bond equal to 100% of the value of the total amount due, in favor of Company, guaranteeing payment of the monies owed, plus all storage charges accrued or to be accrued, Company shall have the right to sell such shipment(s), including goods, wares, or merchandise, as may be necessary to satisfy such lien, together with all related legal costs, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, at public or private sale or auction and any net proceeds remaining thereafter shall be refunded to Customer, provided that Customer shall remain liable for any deficiency arising from the sale.
- (d) Warehouseman's Lien. In connection with warehouse services provided by Company, Company shall have a general warehouse lien for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering, and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods, and for the balance on any other accounts that may be due. Company further claims a general warehouse lien for all such charges, advances and expenses with respect to any other goods stored by Customer in any other facility owned or operated by Company. In order to protect Company's lien, Company reserves the right to require advance payment of all charges prior to shipment of goods.

- (e) Limitation of Damages for Goods Stored. Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage to goods tendered, stored or handled, however caused unless such loss or damage resulted from the failure by Company to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful person would exercise under like circumstances and Company is not liable for damages which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care. Customer declares that damages for loss, damage or delay are limited to $.50 per pound provided, however, that such liability may be increased upon Customer requesting in writing such excess valuation coverage and agreeing to make payment therefor, which request must be confirmed in writing by the Company.
- (f) Liability. Any liability of Company for whatever reason shall in any event be limited to a maximum of $10,000 per event or series of events with one and the same cause of damage. In further consideration of the rates herein, and in keeping with the definitions of company's legal liability as a warehouseman contained herein and in Article 7-204 of the Uniform Commercial Code, Customer agrees to a shrinkage allowance of 0.5% of the value of the goods stored for which, in the case of loss or damage to goods or mysterious disappearance, however caused, Company will not be liable.

15. No Duty to Maintain Records for Customer. Customer acknowledges that, pursuant to Sections 508 and 509 of the Tariff Act, as amended, (19 USC §§ 1508 and 1509) Customer has the duty and is solely liable for maintaining all records required under the Customs and/or other Laws and Regulations of the United States; unless otherwise agreed to in writing, the Company shall only keep such records that Company is required to maintain by Statute(s) and/or Regulation(s), but not act as a "recordkeeper" or "recordkeeping agent" for Customer.

16. Obtaining Binding Rulings, Filing Protests, etc. Unless requested by Customer in writing and agreed to by Company in writing, Company shall be under no obligation to undertake any pre- or post-Customs release action, including, but not limited to, obtaining binding rulings, advising of liquidations, filing of petition(s) and/or protests, etc.

17. Preparation and Issuance of Bills of Lading. Where Company prepares and/or issues a bill of lading, Company shall be under no obligation to specify thereon the number of pieces, packages and/or cartons, etc.; unless specifically requested to do so in writing by Customer or Customer's agent and Customer agrees to pay for same, Company shall rely upon and use the cargo weight supplied by Customer. Subject to the liability limits set forth elsewhere in these Terms and Conditions, Customer and Company hereby waive all rights and remedies under the Carmack Amendment and the ICC Termination Act of 1995 (the "Act"), pursuant to Section 14101(b) of the Act. As required by regulation, Customer and Company do not waive the provisions governing registration, insurance, or safety fitness. Unless Company physically handles and carries the shipment, and the loss, damage, expense or delay occurs during such carriage activity, the Company assumes no liability as a carrier.

18. No Modification or Amendment Unless Written. These terms and conditions of service may only be modified, altered or amended in writing signed by both Customer and Company; any attempt to unilaterally modify, alter or amend same shall be null and void.

19. Compensation of Company. The compensation of the Company for Company's services shall be included with and is in addition to the rates and charges of all carriers and other agencies selected by the Company to transport and deal with the goods and such compensation shall be exclusive of any brokerage, commissions, dividends, or other revenue received by the Company from carriers, insurers and others in connection with the shipment. On ocean exports, upon request, the Company shall provide a detailed breakout of the components of all charges assessed and a true copy of each pertinent document relating to these charges. In any referral for collection or action against the Customer for monies due the Company, upon recovery by the Company, the Customer shall pay the expense of collection and/or litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees.

20. Force Majeure. Company shall not be liable for losses, damages, delays, wrongful or missed deliveries or nonperformance, in whole or in part, of Company's responsibilities under the Agreement, resulting from circumstances beyond the control of either Company or Company's subcontractors, including, but not limited to: (i) acts of God, including flood, earthquake, storm, hurricane, power failure or other natural disaster; (ii) war, hijacking, robbery, theft or terrorist activities; (iii) incidents or deteriorations to means of transportation; (iv) embargoes; (v) civil commotions or riots; (vi) defects, nature of inherent vice of the goods; (vii) acts, breaches of contract or omissions by Customer, Shipper, Consignee or anyone else who may have an interest in the shipment; (viii) acts by any government or any agency or subdivision thereof, including denial or cancellation of any import/export or other necessary license; or (ix) strikes, lockouts or other labor conflicts.

21. Severability. In the event any Paragraph(s) and/or portion(s) hereof is found to be invalid and/or unenforceable, then in such event the remainder hereof shall remain in full force and effect. Company's decision to waive any provision herein, either by conduct or otherwise, shall not be deemed to be a further or continuing waiver of such provision or to otherwise waive or invalidate any other provision herein.

22. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue. These Terms and Conditions of Service and the relationship of the parties shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without giving consideration to principles of conflict of law.

Customer and Company:

- (a) irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas – Fort Worth Division, and if that court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, then exclusive jurisdiction shall rest with the Tarrant County District Courts for the State of Texas;
- (b) agree that any action relating to the services performed by Company, shall only be brought in said courts as set forth in (a) above;

- (c) consent to the exercise of in personam jurisdiction by said courts over it, and
- d) further agree that any action, including, but not limited to, an action to exercise rights under the General Lien and Right to Sell Customer's Property clause herein (14), to enforce a judgment may be instituted in any jurisdiction.
